

To the left of the partition wall the pier foundation (not shown) is connected to the new concrete foundation wall.

To the right of the partition wall the foundation is slab on grade. The concrete foundation wall is acting as a retaining wall being that the site slopes up toward this side.

